BIG TENNIS TOURNEY IS NOW UNDER WAY

Weather Conditions Are Adverse for Opening of the Championship Play.

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., August 31.— Play in the thirty-fifth annual championship tournament of the National Lawn Tennis Association began at the West Side Club here today under adverse weather conditions. A strong cold wind blew across the courts from the north and the gray light handicapped the contestants in the opening round. The turf, except on the grandstand tarpaulin, was still soft from the re tarpaulin, was still soft from the recent rains.

There was no lack of enthusiasm among the entrants, however, and the state relay of the 128 players entered were all in action shortly after 10 o'clock. The opening match on the grandstand courts brought together two collegians in C. A. Major of Cornell and B. C. Law of Princeton, There was but a sprinkling of spectators in the stands at the start of play, but later trains from New York brought out large numbers of tennis enthusiasts.

It seemed probable today that the challenge round for the national doubles championship would not be played until the close of the competition for the singles trophy. The custom has been to play this match on one of the early days of the tournament, but Thomas C. Bundy's delay in starting east has made it impossible to set a definite day for the match thus far.

Interest in the tournament this year has been increased by the series east va. west team matches, which will follow the championship at the end of next week, probably September 10 and 11. Harold H. Hackett, former Davis cup team captain; Craig Biddle of Philadelphia and Edwin Sheafe of Boston have been appointed a committee to select the eastern team. Efforts are being made to bring Elia Fottrell here from the coast in time for these matches. The eastern cracks declare that in their defeat by the Californians in July they were handicapped by having to play on asphalt. They expect to do better on the turf courts here, and are confident of victory in the intersectional matches. and are confident of sectional matches.

Whitted's drive struck the bleacher sessed his cunning as a pitcher he was turned out regardless of what his contract called for.

Though the Feds howled long and loud about the reserve clause in the player's contract, experience is teaching the promoters of the new league that the rules which have for years governed base ball are essential to its success, and slowly but surely the Gilmore contingent is adopting them.

The Federal League is making a strenuous campaign even this early, the object being to dissatisfy players by making them big offers and thus raise the salaries of clubs in organized base ball. Several of Griffith's youngsters have been approached, and he has lost no time getting them into line. Galla and Harper, two of the Nationals' pitchers, for instance, had been felt out by the Feds and then signed with the local club. more contingent is adopting them.

PHILADELPHIA, August 31.—Rumors that Stuffy McInnis had or would desert the Athletics and jump to the Feds were nailed yesterday by Connie Mack, who slipped into town while the Athletics were barnstorming, it being an open date on the American League with Carrigan eligible as a catcher the Athletics were barnstorming, it being an open date on the American League with Carrigan eligible as a catcher the the manner he did," said Mack, "but have no doubt he has a good explanation. I expected McInnis to join the club in every city that we visited on the western trip, and when he did not appear, wired him at his home in Gloucester, Mass. Instead of telegraphing his reply, McInnis wrote and said he would be in Philadelphia Wednesappear, wired him at his home in Gloucester, Mass. Instead of telegraphing his reply, McInnis wrote and said he would be in Philadelphia Wednesday when we open the home stay with Boston."

Connie was decidedly non-committat about what he thinks of the Athletics' prospects, but did say that he was certain Tom Sheehan, the recruit from the Peoria club of the Three I League would be a major league certainty.

"It is too early yet to make any predictions about the other players," he remarked.

Mack was an interested spectator at the Phillies-St. Louis game and watched Pat's Pets come from behind and win out over the Cardinals. If the sight of a Philadelphia club out therefighting it out for a pennant brought back memories of his championship machine, he did not say so.

Mack said he was not surprised at the release of Chief Bender by the Baltimore Federals. He predicted that the chief would come back in fine style next season, declaring there is still alot of good pitching left in him.

"The chances are that the Federal League released Bender just to get him to sign a new contract at a lower salary," he declared. "They simply are not taking in the money and must do something to cut down expenses. I would not be surprised if that is the policy they pursued in the case of Russell Ford, and they wanted Bender also to submit to a cut in salary."

"RUBE" SOLD FOR $2,500.

NEW YORK, August 31.—It has definitely been decided that "Rube" Marquard, recently released by the Giants, will go to the Brooklyn National League team. Wilbert Robinson, John J. McGraw and Charles H. Ebbets reached an agreement at a conference yesterday, and Brooklyn will take over the player at a price said to be $2,500.

All of the major league clubs had waived claim on Marquard, and he was released by the Giants to Toronto. He refused to join the minors, however, and after a talk with Wilbert Robinson Saturday the Brooklyn club made an offer to the Giants of the waiver price, $1,500, for the player. It is understood that McGraw, at the conference with Ebbets and Robinson, raised the valuation. ADAM A. WESCHLER, AUCTIONEER.
